Chapter News

• Universal Access Maintenance

Despite the poor weather conditions, a dozen of our heartiest members gathered at the universal access fishing site in Townsend on Saturday, October 28, to perform maintenance on the casting platforms and pathways. Powell Stone and Gravel of Lunenburg donated and delivered 10 tons of stone dust that our work crew spread over the site. The entire effort was completed in two and a half hours. Thanks to all those who participated!

• Meeting Date Reminder

The member's meeting in December has been moved to avoid conflict with the holidays. The meeting will take place in the third week of December on Tuesday the 19th.

Chapter Elections!

Nominations were heard at the October member's meeting. We will continue to operate with the BOD running the chapter as a committee. Two additional one year board positions will be maintained in lieu of the president's and vice president's offices. Elections will be held at the December meeting, none of the positions are contested.

November Presentation

“Amateurs in Yellowstone Country”

Our program for November will be presented by one of our Chapter's own. Ray Gagnon will take us on a trip through Yellowstone Country in Montana and Wyoming. Rivers and water-bodies fished and/or photographed will include: the Yellowstone, the Firehole, Newton Lakes, Rock Creek, the Clark's Fork of the Yellowstone, and a very special spring creek. In addition to the waters and the fishing, there'll also be some travel scenes along the way. Lastly, Ray promises us “a photo sequence that, without a doubt, chronicles the greatest example of amateur's luck ever recorded in all the annals of fly-fishing.” Need we say more? See you at our November meeting.

Every year Tom Towey carves a pumpkin for raffle at our October meeting. This year's masterpiece was won by Jerry Lubenau. Congratulations Jerry and great job with the artwork Tom!
